Coffees

PROUD TO SERVE COSTA

Did you know in London 1971 an incredible thing happened? A cup of Costa Coffee was poured for the very first time by its creators Sergio and Bruno Costa. The secret to the Costa success has been the creation of their very own blend – a unique recipe that, to this day, is a closely guarded secret.

The coffee you can enjoy today uses that same Costa slow-roasted coffee bean called Mocha Italia. By choosing Costa coffee, you're not just getting a great coffee; you're also doing your bit for coffee growers and their community as 100% of the beans are from Rainforest Alliance Certified™ Farms. Good news all round.
